Thanks. Do you happen to know whether this is the same amount that was referred to in the media earlier today (media reported a single FI freezing $3.8 million held by a payment processor – perhaps the number was misreported or it's a different FI corporate account all together)?

We're getting conflicting numbers from different agency partners and the media so just trying to make sense of it all.

That is correct Julien. It was a corporate account that was frozen.

Thanks [Personal Info.]. Just to confirm then that the difference between the numbers you provided yesterday (125 accounts frozen for a value of approximately $3.6 million) and this evening's numbers (126 accounts frozen worth approximately $7.4 million) is the report of a single non-DSIB that to itself froze $4,241,917.60$?

Just want to make sure we've got that right as that is a significant increase for a single FI.

Julien

Hi Julien,

As promised, I've updated the Financial Data Report with the data from a non-DSIB as at end of Friday.

I'll work on getting updated data from the weekend from the others for tomorrow AM. Hopefully this will suffice if I can't.

Please let me know what your deadline is tomorrow morning.

Hi Julien,

Thanks for this.

A couple of things:

- I'll be able to provide you with an updated number as a non-DSIB has provided me with data.
- I'll ask the DSIBs for updated numbers in a moment. Given that it's a Sunday or a long weekend, I'm not certain how much of a response I will get. What's your deadline tomorrow morning?

Good morning Julien and Richard,

Attached is the financial data report for the business day ending Friday, February 18th for just the DSIBs.

Note that we started tracking dollar amounts frozen under the credit lines. That number is incomplete as not every bank was got us the dollar amounts starting yesterday. I expect to have a more complete picture in our next report on Monday, February 21st, which will cover Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

In the meantime, please feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions.

Take care. And stay safe and healthy.
